

Standing on the Right Side of History: Immigration Reform and the Jewish Community

featuring DREAM-er Maria Sotomayor

Maria Sotomayor was brought to this country from Ecuador as a young child and is one of the more than 1 million undocumented immigrants living in the United States who would qualify for citizenship under the Development, Relief, and Education for Alien Minors (DREAM) Act. Hear her story, and learn more about the cause of the nearly 12 million undocumented immigrants currently living and working in the United States. Maria will be joined by Emily Cohen, an RRC student who serves as the Rabbinic Intern for HIAS Pennsylvania, where she coordinates the Greater Philadelphia Jewish Coalition on Immigration
