

Join together with other Or Hadash'ers to package and deliver food at the Jewish Relief Agency on Sunday, July 12, 2015 and August 9th.

Have fun & help feed those in need!

The final Social Action – Tikkun Olam volunteer event of the year is an important activity addressing hunger reduction. The Jewish Relief Agency (JRA) provides food to impoverished people in the Philadelphia area.

If you have never been to JRA before - it is FUN for the whole Family!!

See the information below from the JRA website for the details. Please remember to RSVP so that we know who will be coming.

From the JRA Website:

Most volunteers arrive at 10:00am. Volunteers check in, have a quick nosh (bagels and shmeers and coffee, of course!), get a brief orientation and take their place alongside other enthusiastic volunteers in the assembly line packing boxes with food. Packing takes about 90 minutes — it's not a race, but 750+ people working together can get things done really fast.

Volunteers load their cars with 8-12 boxes and make deliveries right to the homes of JRA's recipient families. We make deliveries to recipients who live all over the five county Philadelphia area and northern Delaware, and provide turn-by-turn driving directions so you won't get lost.

Please R.S.V.P. by Tuesday, 7/9 and 8/4 to Barbara Weisman via email: school@orhadash.com

We will meet at JRA:

10980 Dutton Road,
Philadelphia, PA 19154
