

Wouldn't it be great to have

SHABBAT IN THE PARK

When? SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1st

Where? ROBBINS PARK (directions below)

What? An opportunity to experience nature as we gather together to celebrate Shabbat

Who? Congregants of all ages!

- 8:45 am - Bagel Breakfast
- 9:00 am - TWO Torah Studies, one with Rabbi Josh & another with Morah Barbara (for students)
- 10:00 am - Rabbi Josh will lead a family friendly Shabbat morning service
- Special kids programming with Morah Barbara begins at 10 am until 11:15 - singing, yoga, crafts and treats for the 8 and under crowd and the folks who love them!
- Seating is on benches. If you would prefer a chair, please bring your own!
- 11:45 am - Oneg for all!
- Shabbat in the Park happens rain or shine.
- In the event of rain, the service will be held in the pavilion. Listening to and smelling spring rain can be a gift for the senses!

Directions to Robbins Park (NO services or Torah study will be held at Or Hadash)

Route 309 north to Susquehanna Rd./Butler Pike exit

Right at first light onto Butler Pike

Cross back under Route 309 and turn left into the Robbins Park parking lot (just before the light for Meeting-house Road, opposite the Temple Ambler parking lot)

The pavilion will be on your right, down a short path, as you pull into the parking lot (park on your left, so the path will be on the opposite side of the parking lot, behind you)

You can download a map of the park from the following link: http://www.udsd.org/uploaded/documents/Jason T/Katie Braun/Robbins Park ... - the entrance to the park is on the bottom of the map, and the pavilion is just beyond the entrance to the right
