

Mekonen

The Journey of an African Jew

From the producers of

BENEATH THE HELMET
From High School to the Home Front

Please join us for a special Yom Ha'atzmaut celebration and screening of Mekonen: The Journey of an African Jew*

DATE: Tuesday, May 2, 2017

TIME: 7:00 PM – 8:45 PM

LOCATION: Temple Sinai, 1401 N. Limekiln Pike, Dresher, PA

The program will include the film and speaker Michelle Barrack, who will discuss her personal experience with Ethiopian Jews making Aliyah to Israel. Israeli style refreshments will conclude the evening.

Presented by the Temple Sinai Israel Advocacy Committee and the JFGP Bux-Mont Kehillah

There is no charge for this program but please RSVP to:

Barbara Rosenau – bbrosenau@gmail.com

Mekonen: The Journey of an African Jew* is a mini-documentary that follows the personal journey of Mekonen Abebe, a young African immigrant to Israel. As a child, Mekonen was a shepherd in rural Africa, and now serves as a commander in the Israel Defense Forces (IDF).

mekonen.jerusalemu.org

